Giants Return to Polo Grounds To-day After Record Breaking Tour---Yankees Lose and Dodgers Drop Two

PHILLIES TAKE FAREWELL GAME

McGraw's Men Lack Vicious Offensive That Earned Them Record Tour.

MATTY TO PITCH AT POLO GROUNDS TO-DAY

PHILADELPHIA, June 1 .- The Phillies refused to submit to further humiliation than an even split with McGraw's emons, who had rent the West into Cincinnati Reds.

Perhaps as remarkable as any of modern baseball history was this long road trip of the Giants. They visited every foreign field but that of Brooklyn, playing twenty-one games in all, of which nineteen were clear cut victories. The Giants came to Philadelphia with a clean record of seventeen consecutive wins. Al Demarce stopped them in the morning game becomes them in the morning game becomes the morning game and singles by Meyer and Pick cleared the way for two more to roll home, this in the eighth inning.

Boone was nearer to the plate than any other Yank. He reached third in the fifth on a force, High's single and any other Yank. He reached third in the fifth on a force, High's single and any other Yank. He reached third in the fifth on a force, When he and Nuna-stances, but they could not hit his to be without imparting any toniclike qualities to the Yankees. from the fans asking that Matty be allowed to pitch the first home game. McGraw as a rule seldom makes early itching selections. But he said to-night hat he had laid his plans here to gratify the wishes of his patrons. Math ewson was not called upon to face the Phillies so that he might be at his best form for the Reds. He will pitch against Cincinnati to-morrow if the day is fine and he feels as fit after warming up as he has throughout the long road jour-

The Phillies beat the Giants to-day, but they had no cinch in doing it. Rixey was hit quite as hard as Stroud, though not at such opportune moments. Rixey, too, was afforded the better support. Misplays figured heavily in against the Giants, though McGraw's men fought gamely every inch of the and effected a tie after the Quakers had established an early lead.

Glants' Attack Not Victors. The Giant attack was not so vicious as generally throughout the sensational tour. Opportunities for runs came fre quently even after Philadelphia stepped out into the lead for the second time. But usually Rixey fooled the Giants into ing after bad balls in the pinches. nny Kauff furnished one striking tration of this. He came up with Robertson and Doyle on and none out eighth, with the Glants only two behind. Benny bit at two high balls to the inside, got himself in the hole and finally fanned. With Fletcher, a right handed batter, coming up, under the circumstances Kauff should have shown greater caution in looking over Rixey's offerings. McGraw never was strong believer in the sacrifice. But a strong believer in the sacrifice.
